

Sixth Grade Social Studies

World Geography

1. Understands the geographic features that are common and unique to various parts of the world.
2. Understands how the physical features of the Earth impact communities and regions.
3. Understands how changes in the natural geographic features of Earth affects humans.
4. Understands the relationship between regions of the World and climate.
5. Understands that where people live/settle influences how they work, play, and interact.
6. Understands several selected belief systems (religions, cultural practices) that have existed over time.
7. Understands how belief systems impact selected societies.
8. Understands how culture impacts society.
9. Understands that different cultural perspectives lead lead groups to interpret the same events differently.
10. Understands that the interaction between cultural groups can result can result in sharing products and ideas, consensus, compromise, or conflict.